STOP PRESS

We are very sad to hear that Lord Clinton recently passed away. All of the Love Budleigh team would like to express their condolences to Lady Clinton and their family.

Lord Clinton earned the respect and appreciation of many in Budleigh Salterton with his patronage of local organisations such as the Cricket Club and Fairlynch Museum. He oversaw the recent restoration project in the Lower Otter resulting in the developing Nature Reserve already enjoyed by many from near and far. He was also known for his generosity including donating Christmas Trees for the town to enjoy each year. He will be much missed.

Love Budleigh, the Budleigh information Centre are delighted that we have been chosen by the Co-op as one of the beneficiaries of their Community Fund.

From 12th January 2024, the Co-op changed the way money is allocated to their community causes. They now have a central fund of £4 million which is shared out to all their community causes across the country. The amount received by each cause is now based on the number of members choosing the cause.

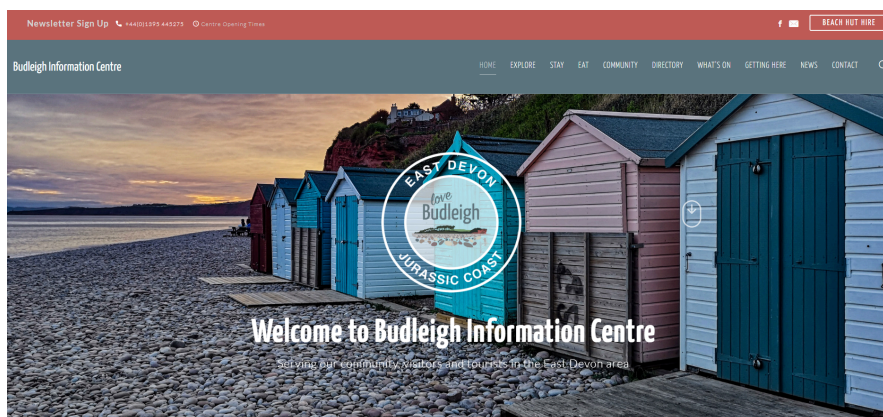

If you would like to support us and you are already a Co-op member, please go to the Community section on the Co-op app and select Budleigh Information Centre as your chosen cause.

If you are not a Co-op member, then you can apply for membership and then choose us as your community cause. It costs just £1 to become a Co-op member, and as well as supporting us as your local community cause, you will also have access to the exclusive offers and discounts offered to Co-op members.

Our thanks to the Co-op and their Local Community Fund.

Budleigh Embroiderers

Budleigh Embroiderers are a friendly group of about thirty people, who share an interest in the love of embroidery and textile arts.

We meet twice a month (except August), normally the first and third Mondays from 10am- midday. Our venue is the Budleigh Salterton Croquet Club, where there is disabled access and plenty of parking.

On most mornings we bring our own work, but sometimes we have talks from our own members or outside speakers and also we enjoy workshops given by members or visiting textile artists. The work done by our members is very varied and everyone is willing to help others and share knowledge .
